

Business English Communication

#StayHome

Course Overview:

#StayHome is a perfect time to take online classes for improving your Business English Communication skills. The goal is to support participants in their ability to communicate easily and successfully in English. This course will be supplemented with online applications making this training more flexible and participants' friendly. By the end of this training program, attendees will be able to capitalize on their Business English communication strengths, effectively use various communication tools, and understand how one can handle difficult situations at work when doing business in English.

Days and Time:

Starting 27th April – 11th of June 2020, except the week during Eid

Every week on Saturday, Monday and Wednesday from 8 pm – 10 pm

Special Price Offer:

40% discount – QR1, 750

How Will You Benefit?

By the end of the course learners will be able to:

- Learn how to successfully present oneself and business.
- Practice and master their telephone skills.
- Learn how to professionally disagree/agree, report, ask for opinion, complain, negotiate, etc.
- Become aware of major differences in British and American variety of English used in business.
- Learn proper use of oral skills and body language

Lecturer Bio

Karolina Kowalska

ESP / IELTS Lecturer

Karolina is resourceful, dedicated and goal-driven educator with a strong commitment to linguistic growth and development of her students. She is holding a Master of Arts diploma in Sociolinguistics as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Phonetics and Phonology and a teaching experience of 14 years (Europe and the Middle East). As an experienced lecturer and trainer, she reflexes aptitude to remain flexible, ensuring that every student's learning abilities and styles are addressed. Karolina is a highly motivated, enthusiastic and a caring educator, committed to professional ethics and establishing cooperative relationships with her trainees. She strives to build student self-esteem and encourage understanding of cultural identity in a friendly learning atmosphere